THE WOTWOTS SIGN DEAL WITH KIDS CHANNEL, KIDS 1

ABC Commercial has sold the internationally successful children's animation series, the WotWots to C4U Entertainment to screen on their Kids Channel, Kids 1 from March 2011 where it will be broadcast in Korean.

The 52 x 10 minute series is already enjoying success in the market with Korean Distribution Company, Kenny & Co, placing it on Kids Talk Talk and JEI TV, with the latter planning to dub each episode in Korean. the WotWots was also chosen by LG for its colourful, energetic and entertaining animation plus its superior HD quality to be seen on LG televisions in LG Global retail stores and a number of notable consumer electronic shows.

the WotWots are two small, puppet-like aliens, a brother and sister, who come to explore planet Earth in their steam powered spaceship. They land in a local zoo and delight in discovering all the exotic creatures that live there. The series celebrates the joy of discovery and the strange and extraordinary diversity of life on the planet.

"the WotWots is one of our premium children's brands and the multiple sales into Korea confirms the series is excellent pre-school education content, perfect for this territory," said Natalie Lawley, ABC Commercial's Sales Manager for Asia, Australia & NZ.

the WotWots was produced by Pukeko Pictures and made at Richard Taylor's Weta Workshop. Pukeko Pictures is a business partnership between Academy Award winner Richard Taylor, the co-founder and creative lead of Weta Workshop, and internationally acclaimed author, illustrator and children's television creator/producer, Martin Baynton. Taylor and Baynton previously teamed up to create the highly acclaimed award winning children's program, Jane and the Dragon.
