

the WotWots Zoom into a Second Series with a Confirmed Broadcast on The Hub

New Zealand, June 21 2011...

Pukeko Pictures today announced everyone's favourite alien duo, SpottyWot and DottyWot, from the internationally successful children's animation series, the WotWots, is close to completing production on a second series.

The second 52 x 11 minute series will see the lovable little aliens explore life by the sea and farmyard animals and has already been confirmed for broadcast on The Hub in the US.

"We are pleased to announce production on the second series of the WotWots. This series will see SpottyWot and DottyWot discover animal life at the beach and on the farm – two distinctive settings that are endearing to children and that young ones can interact with in real life. Children the world over are embracing the series and the unique cuddly characters and the pick-up of series two by The Hub is testament to this" said co-founder of Weta Workshop, Sir Richard Taylor.

With broadcasts in 89 territories including Australia, Canada, Korea, Middle East and Poland, the WotWots was recently sold to HBO Family Latin America for PAY-TV and VOD rights.

the WotWots

the WotWots is an enchanting pre-school series that follows the adventures of two adorable siblings from outer space, SpottyWot and DottyWot. This delightful pair of enquiring minds have come to Earth to explore and to marvel at the extraordinary diversity of life on the blue planet. The show celebrates this joy of discovery and demonstrates the positive values that are the building blocks of a true and enduring friendship.

the WotWots is produced by Pukeko Pictures and made at Richard Taylor's Weta Workshop. Pukeko Pictures is a new business partnership between Academy Award winner Richard Taylor the co-founder and creative lead of Weta Workshop (Lord of the Rings, King Kong), and internationally acclaimed author and children's television creator, Martin Baynton. Taylor and Baynton previously teamed up to create the award winning children's program, Jane and the Dragon.
