

Big Giggles Appoint Worldwide Representatives Lawless Entertainment for Superbike Sam and Tee hee

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

London, October 27, 2011

Big Giggles Ltd is proud to announce their appointment of Lawless Entertainment as worldwide representatives for animation, licensing, merchandising and publishing for Superbike Sam and Tee hee, properties.

Superbike Sam follows the adventures of a bright red friendly motorbike and all his friends who live near the racetrack in Cam Valley. Sam is an inspirational leader and brings his friends together to confront and overcome the problems and issues that they encounter on a daily basis whilst never underestimating the fact that they should have lots of fun on the way.

Teamwork and a solid work ethic are among many social and life skills that are inherent in the stories. The friends have many interesting personality and character traits on show and the interactions between them teach important behavioural and developmental lessons. There are many opportunities in the stories to raise environmental and green issues whilst exploring the multi cultural makeup of small communities and indeed the wider world.

Superbike Sam and his friends have great fun on their adventures and their willingness to work together ensures that they create positive outcomes.

Tee hee is a brave and imaginative little girl who has a great big secret. She has a magic dressing up box that transforms and whisks her away to enjoy new fantastic adventures with her best friends Nubby, Bunny and Teddy. The world is her oyster as each outfit she dons takes her to a new destination where she encounters many interesting people and places.

The stories have many educational themes, geographical, historical and cultural but the overriding theme is to have fun. What is Tee hee today? Is she a nurse tending poor Teddy's tummy ache or will she be a swashbuckling pirate braving the perilous seas? Who knows...In Tee hee's World!
